

Marti Hunter

Marti Hunter is the Communications Consultant for Ohio Interfaith Power and Light. She has a background in both religious education and communications work. Marti is a graduate of The Ohio State University (M.S. Elementary Education) and The Methodist Theological School in Ohio (Masters in Christian Education). She worked as Director of Religious Education for churches in Ohio and Wisconsin before joining the national staff of the United Church of Christ in Cleveland, Ohio. In her role of Associate for Media Resources for the UCC Coordinating Center for Women, Marti edited a nationally-distributed women's journal, wrote programmatic resources, and coordinated national and regional United Church of Christ women's gatherings. Marti has also served as Director of Communications for a county-wide early childhood program.

Her work now with Ohio Interfaith Power and Light stems from a deep concern for the environment; exploring the intersection of faith, ecology, and social justice; and seeking to create a more sustainable future for all.

Marti lives in Cleveland Heights. She enjoys hiking, biking, gardening, and Scottish dancing!

“One touch of nature makes the whole world kin.”-William Shakespeare